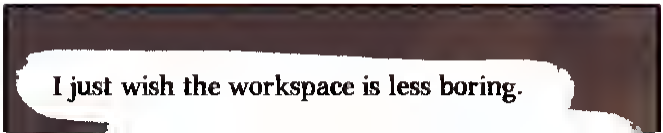
TGIF... I'm sick of working for this company!

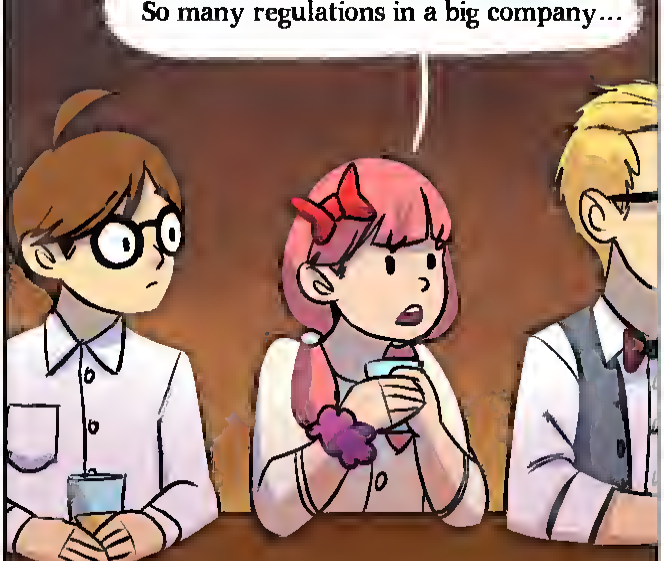
Anyone agrees with me?

Yeah, I totally agree!
I hate my job at War Street Journal! Working overtime almost everyday for annoying people...

Me too, I wish I could report happy and interesting things rather than bad news.



I just wish the workspace is less boring.



So many regulations in a big company...

Arghhh!
Why are we still working in this company?!

Can you stop yelling like an animal?

Sometimes we have to accept the reality, Leo...

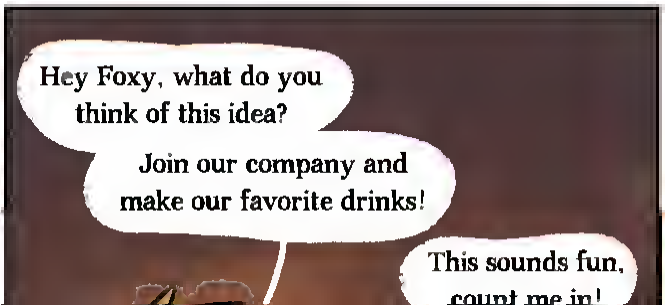
Hey guys, I just had an idea.
How about we start a media company run by our animal alias and only report good things?

THE WAR STREET JOURNAL
We can call it Roar Street Journal.

Here's your second round of juices!



Hey Foxy, what do you think of this idea?
Join our company and make our favorite drinks!
This sounds fun, count me in!

Please take Mr. Allie too!
He's a gym coach at day time.
and he's also good at repairing things!
Sure! He can help us greatly!

Inspiring people with positive things is a good deed, Leo.
Woah!
How come you're here, Master?!
THE VINE STREET LIBRARY
I come here often to have my favorite tea.

Since you're here, you shall be part of our new company!
We surely need some wise words!

Woohoo!
Roar Street Journal!
